

Class 5 Newsletter

Autumn Term – 17/11/17

This Week...

Maths

This week we have been simplifying fractions and looking at equivalent fractions. We have also completed some Maths assessments.

English

We have been watching the short film: 'The Piano.' The children have been exploring adventurous vocabulary and writing narrative including flashbacks.

Across the Curriculum

In History we have started to write a newspaper article about how World War One began. In our Art lesson we were painting in response to Music.

Next Week...

Maths

We will be continuing with our work on fractions looking at percentages, ratio and proportion.

English

We will be starting a new Class Novel: War of the Worlds by H.G Wells.

Important Dates

- OPEN DOOR - Wednesday 3:20pm until 3:40pm. Please feel free to visit our classroom and ask any questions you may have.

Don't Forget

- Homework to be returned to school on MONDAY please!
- The new project has now been sent home! I hope the children enjoying finding out about CHRISTMAS AROUND THE WORLD.
- The pantomime trip on 8th December is £7.50. Please return the reply slip and money (or pay via parent pay) before 24th November. Thank-you.

It was lovely to see so many of you at Parents' Evening on Thursday. The relationship between home and school is so important in supporting your child in their learning, so thank you! Also a big WELL DONE to the children who were prefects; they represented school so sensibly and I am very proud of them all.

Special News!

Curriculum Certificate – Nicola

Christian Value – Justice – Callum

Writer of the Week – Adam

