Our theme this half term is TRUTH

This week we had a very special visitor in school. Pastor Chris Martin from The Gambia came and led our worship. The whole school was enthralled with Pastor Chris' message of how we can help to make this world a better place by following Jesus, sharing God's love, and being better citizens. Many children were asking when he can come and see us again and are already planning how we can organise a school trip to West Africa; a wonderful idea but quite a challenge for the school budget! Pastor Chris also spent time in Class 3 teaching the children how to sing, worship and dance; Gambian style! It was wonderful to learn how people choose to worship in another culture.

Mrs Seagrave's Good Manners Award

Congratulations to Max Cook in Reception who won my special award last week. Max is one of our youngest children but he smiles and shines wherever he goes around school. We are very proud of you; keep shining Max!

Lea's Got Talent

The PTA, Lea's Got Talent is going to be held at Parkfield Club, Lane Ends, on Friday 11th May. Doors will open at 6:45pm and the show will start at 7:15pm. Tickets to be purchased in advance; £3 a ticket, £10 for a family ticket (entry for up to 4 people) A separate letter will be sent home early next week, to allow you to order tickets. If your child would like to enter the competition and audition, please give your permission on the slip below. This will help us to know that, should they be selected for the LIVE FINAL, they will be able to attend. Auditions will take place in each class. The children in the class will vote for their two favourite acts to go forward to the Live Final. No staff will be involved in the voting. Independent judges (not linked to school) will make the final decisions on the night. Please come along and support this event, even if your child isn't entering. We hope it will be a great night for all the family and we will enjoy celebrating the many and varied talents of the children at Lea Endowed.
