What's going on this week?

Deaf Awareness Week is held this year on the 14th-20th May and the theme for the week is 'Connect and Communicate'. Many events to raise awareness have taken place including several Great British Dog Walks, charity dog walks in aid of Hearing Dogs for the Deaf. Countdown Presenter Rachel Riley took part in one held at Savill Gardens, Windsor Great Park.

Things to talk about at home…

- What do you think you would find hardest about being unable to hear?
- Can you list the ways your life would be different if you were deaf or hard of hearing?
- Do you think more should be done to help people who are unable to hear? If so what kinds of things could be done? E.g. more signs, information to help those who can hear communicate.
- Guide Dogs are often connected with people who are unable to see. In what ways do you think dogs for people who are unable to hear can be of benefit?
