This Week...

We have had a fantastic Extreme English week. We started the week with the disappearance of our crayons and felt tip pens - they had been reading the book 'The Day the Crayons Quit' and decided they should leave too! Fortunately the children managed to coax them back with some wonderful persuasive letters. We went on to write some very creative colour poems to convince them to stay. We now have some very happy colours ;)

We had a visit from a librarian on Wednesday. She read the children a range of exciting stories.

On Thursday we felt as though we had stepped into a storybook with all the fantastic costumes...

Extreme English Awards

Writer of the Week -

Elissa for a fantastic colour poem.

Reader of the Week -

Erin for improvement and excellence.

Honourable Mention

to Freddie for fantastic effort.

It was a lovely morning of acting, story re-writing and book inspired craft.

As well as all of the English we have continued with our Maths too and the children have impressed me by adding and subtracting 2 digit numbers!

Next Week....

We will be returning to the story 'Stuck' by Oliver Jeffers.

In Maths we will be using our addition and subtraction skills as we look at statistics.

A BIG Well Done....

to those who have been on 'Outstanding' 3 or more times this week!

Elliot, Lewis, Matthew, Sienna, Isaac, Isabella, Mia, Florence, Elissa, Amelia, Kayla, Erin and Freddie.

Homework

To continue Tic Tac Toe homework sheet. A new set of spellings have also been sent home to learn on a look, cover, write sheet.

 Apologies to Mia for missing her name off last week's news letter. Well done for presenting your work so beautifully.
