Our theme this half term is
HUMILITY

"Let your light shine." Matthew 5:16

As we finish this half term, it's hard to believe where the last 7 weeks have disappeared to. It's been great to end Summer 1 with our Extreme English week, with so many opportunities to celebrate all things Reading, Writing, Speaking & Listening. We always have a great time celebrating the power of Language in all its many forms during this special week. KS1 and Reception children had a wonderful visit from author Mary Brown and were able to hear her read her own story outside in the sunshine, in our beautiful grounds. Today's special Dress Up as an Adjective Day was a joy, with so many creative ideas across school. The Get Caught Reading competition is always a huge hit with both staff and children and this year was no different. We've loved spotting who the children are in some very creative spaces. Who knew a Lidl carrier bag and a bus stop could be a place to settle and enjoy a good book! A huge thank you for your support with both of these activities. 😊

This Monday, the team from BSYW (Blackpool Schools Youth Workers) delivered a wonderful worship on Christianity around the world. We flew, sang and danced our way to Nigeria, Uganda and Romania, which fitted in so well with our exploration of how people worship Jesus, in other cultures.

Gardening Thank You's

We are incredibly thankful to Arthur's (Y2) grandma and to Amalie & Ezra's daddies (Reception) and their conservationist friend who have worked so hard to help improve our beautiful school grounds, this term. Between them they have dug, planted, weeded and transformed several areas of our outdoors. We can now see the pond again and the children have been collecting tadpoles and done some serious frog spotting! THANK YOU for all your time, hard work and kindness- it means such a lot to our school family. Any donations of plants, shrubs, pots etc are very welcome!

MRS SEAGRAVE'S HEADTEACHER'S AWARD

I am delighted to have presented my special award for shining brightly and making a wonderful contribution to school life to:

Ollie in Reception, Rhema in Y6
and Freya in Y1

Well done and keep shining brightly; I'm very proud of you all.

Thank you for your support this half term. The sun is forecast to shine next week; a Bank Holiday miracle! Enjoy a wonderful half term, CM Seagrave
