

This Week

Hello and welcome to the new year in Class 3!
This half term has started well as we all start to gel together as a new Year 3 and 4 unit. New friendships are being made, and the children are adjusting well to new routines and expectations. This half term we are covering lots of exciting new concepts and topics. If you wish to look at these in more detail, the new Curriculum Overviews are now available on the class area of the website.

Start of Year Reminders.

Please can Reading Book Bags be brought into school EVERY day.

Homework will be sent home on a Friday and must be returned the following Wednesday

No earrings must be worn on PE days please (Tuesday)

Parent Welcome Meeting

Thank you to all the parents who were able to join me for the Parent Welcome Meeting on Wednesday. It was lovely to meet you all, and I hope the information shared was useful and informative.

For those parents who were unable to attend, I am sending home copies of the information, and these will be in your child's book bag. Please look out for this as it contains important information

Open Door will begin next Tuesday the 20th September from 3:15pm – 3:35pm and run every Tuesday thereafter. All are welcome to come and visit the classroom or ask any questions you may have!

We have celebrated the gracious, dignified and dutiful life of Queen Elizabeth II in school over the past week; we have rung our Victorian school bell 12 times, laid flowers in our Reflection Area, written prayers, completed some wonderful artwork, sung the National Anthem and had a special worship. We have all been respectful and reflective as we live through this momentous time in our history. Queen Elizabeth II has been a wonderful example of all our Christian Values and we are grateful beyond words for her long life and historic reign.
