Welcome back. We hope you have enjoyed a wonderful Easter.

This half term our topic is 'In the Woods'. The children will be investigating plant growth and our class book is 'The Owl who was afraid of the dark' by Jill Tomlinson.

Learning this Week

We have been focusing on apostrophes for contractions and questions in our English work and the suffixes _ness and _ment.

In our Mathematics work we have revisited number and place value, focusing on representing numbers to 100 in different ways and problem solving.

In Geography we have begun exploring the features of the UK and focused on the country of England.

In our RE work we have begun our new unit exploring special places and shared our own experiences about the places that are special to each of us.

Learning next Week

We will continue learning out about Plop the owl and his discoveries about the dark in our and this will form part of our activities for Extreme English week.

Our Mathematics work will focus on the four main calculations and statistics.
