The last fortnight in class...

The last couple of weeks have been extremely busy in Class 5! We have welcomed Poppy into our class and the children have made her feel really welcome ☺ We have been swimming daily and have been completing some assessments so I can see where the children are in terms of their independent Maths and English skills. We have also written and presented a Remembrance worship for the whole school and created some beautiful Remembrance Art. We have started our Science topic on Electricity and have begun to think about the season of Advent in R.E. In History, the children have enjoyed starting to find out about World War One.

Notices...

Book Fair – Thank you so much to everybody who supported the book Fair. Together we raised £495 to spend on free books for our school.

Remembrance Service – Thank you so much to the children who presented a beautiful and respectful service for Remembrance day. Thank you, also, to everyone who attended.

Unfortunately, due to lack of parents (PTA members) to help, we have had to cancel our Christmas Fayre. We do, however, have a PLAN B! Please await a letter coming soon with further details!
