

This Week...

Maths

This week we focused on improving our arithmetic skills! We have also been measuring and calculating the area and perimeter of various shapes.

English

We have been watching the short film: 'The Piano.' The children have been exploring adventurous vocabulary and writing narrative including flashbacks. Some of their writing has been amazing!

Across the Curriculum

This week we have started practising for our Christmas performance, The Greatest Journey. We have learnt about 'Life in the Trenches' in our History lesson and the children have produced some wonderful writing and informative diagrams showing the horrors of living in trenches.

Next Week...

Maths

We will be revising some key areas of learning from this half term.

English

We will be writing linked to the theme of 'Advent': What Advent means to me and prayers for the season.
