

Our emotional needs

I need to feel that I am good at some things

I need to have friends

I need to feel part of a group

I need to try new things

I need to have some choice over what I do

I need to give and receive attention

I need some time on my own

I need to feel safe and secure