British Values

9th – 15th November

Mutual Respect

Situations and circumstances around the world are always changing. Sometimes how we use certain things will change too. We should always try to think about different ways to use these things so that they do not go to waste.

Picture News

9th November 2020

UN Rights of a Child

Children's education should help them to live peacefully and protect the environment.

