

This Week...

Maths and English

This week we have completed some test papers so that I am able to check the children's progress towards their targets and their understanding of areas taught so far. The children have tried really hard with these papers; we are now on to the final stretch before the real tests in May!

Across the Curriculum

This week we have concluded our BIBLE EXPLORER journey thinking about FAITH and what this means. In D.T we have looked at the sugar content of various foods – the children were shocked by some of our findings! Our LENT APPEAL 'Choose Love-Red' day on Thursday was a great success; we joined together with our buddies in Reception to do some heart shaped baking and write prayers. Thank-you for all your kind donations towards this worthy cause.

Next Week...

More work on 'There's a Boy in the Girl's Bathroom' in English and further work on 2D and 3D shape in Maths.
