

Our Diamond 9 word this week is-

Unique

This Week

This week, we have continued with our English work on Paddington, using close reading to highlight inverted commas and their features, as well as identifying ambitious language choices which we will try and 'magpie' to use in our own work. In Maths, we have been rounding numbers, some of us to the nearest 10 whilst others have been rounding to the nearest 100 or 1000. Please do keep practising with times tables at home as these will prove invaluable with much of our Maths work this year. We explored magnets in our Science and learned new terminology; looking at how magnets can attract or repel. We continued looking at the story of David and Goliath in our RE; thinking about key elements of the story.

It's Harvest Time again, and this year we are delighted to be supporting the Mothers' Union in Burundi. The Mothers' Union is a Christian charity, which helps families worldwide. Situated in East Africa, Burundi is one of the poorest countries in the world. 71% of the population live on less than £1.50 per day. 92% of the population work in agriculture - farming God's land to survive. The Mothers' Union is raising money to fund a project that will support women in Burundi through developing their literacy, business and agricultural skills. The project aims to educate the people of Burundi to farm the land to its full potential. In "Loving God and Loving Others", we want to play a small part in making a big difference to help the women of Burundi to flourish. We plan to hold a

'Sponsored Gardening Session'. This will allow us to raise money for Burundi, whilst encouraging our children to look at God's wonderful world as they care for our school grounds. We want to help make that connection between encouraging others reach their potential, showing compassion for the people of Burundi who work in agriculture to survive, and make a positive difference in our own "Small Corner of God's World". We will also be holding a Non-Uniform day on Wednesday 5th October (the children can wear the colours of the Burundi flag: red, white and green) in return for a £1 donation. Please look out for the sponsor form, coming home next week.

Thank you for any support you can give.
