1 Jairus was a man living in the town of Capernaum where Jesus was staying. When his daughter became very ill he knew who to go to for help.	A cartoon illustration of a man in a black silhouette running quickly towards the right, with a large yellow cloud-like shape behind him.
2 Jairus hurried to find Jesus. 'Please come quickly. My little girl is very sick. I know you can make her better,' he said.	A cartoon illustration of Jesus in a blue robe and white head covering walking towards a man in a green robe who is kneeling and pleading. Other people are visible in the background.
3 They were walking to Jairus' house when someone came to tell them it was too late. The little girl had died!	A cartoon illustration of three men: Jesus in a blue robe and white head covering, a man in a green robe, and a man in a red robe. They are all looking concerned.

- 4 It was no use Jesus going now. But Jesus kept walking. A crowd followed to see what He would do.

- 5 When Jesus got to Jairus' house everyone was crying. The little girl was only 12 years old. They were all very sad.

- 6 Jesus went into the room where the little girl lay dead. He took her by the hand and said, 'Little girl, I say to you, get up.'

- 7 The girl sat up straight away. She was alive! Jesus said, 'Give her something to eat.' It was a miracle!

- 8 Jairus had seen Jesus make his dead daughter come alive again! Only Jesus could do such a miracle!
