Summer Term – 14/06/19

Welcome back! I hope you all had an enjoyable break! I can't believe this is our last half term in school before Year 6 leave us to start their high schools. It's set to be both a busy and enjoyable time that will prepare the children for the next part of their journey as well as giving them special memories of primary school, for life.

This Week...

This week has been jam-packed in Class 5 with 'Passport to Safer Cycling' taking place 4 out of 5 days. Luckily the weather has been kind to us. In class we have been completing lots of writing activities. We have written short stories based on the film 'Something Fishy' as well as planning and writing our own fantasy stories. We have also written descriptive pieces entitled, "The Volcano". Additionally, we wrote formal letters of thanks following our visit from two magistrates on Thursday morning. This visit proved to be both informative and enjoyable for the children. They were able to take part in a 'mock trial' and gained a real insight into the role of magistrates in the Justice System.

Next Week...

Maths

We will be recapping mental and written calculation including solving puzzles and problems involving addition, subtraction, multiplication and addition. We will also be

English

We will be continuing with our Class Novel 'Kensuke's Kingdom'.
