Autumn Term – 02/11/18

This Week...	Next Week...
Maths This week we have been learning about multiples and factors as well as prime and composite numbers. We have also been exploring what we know about fractions and applying this in practical activities. English We have been exploring the war poem 'Flanders Fields'. The children have learnt and performed this and have been looking at the language and layout of the poem as well as its meaning. Across the Curriculum In History we have begun to learn about World War One and some of the key events of the war. In Science we have begun a new unit on 'Light and Shadow'. Our R.E. explored the meaning of Advent; the children wrote some reflective poems about this special time of year.	Maths We will be continuing with our work on fractions looking at percentages, ratio and proportion. English We will be starting a new Class Novel: War of the Worlds by H.G Wells.
