Learning this Week

In our English work we have continued to focus on stories by Simon Bartram. The children have completed grammar assessments and have written their own adventures for Bob and Barry.

In Mathematics we have been looking at money, combining amounts and using the correct notations (£&p). Our RE work has focused on angels as messengers to Zechariah and the Annunciation.

In our Science we have sorted animals using their features and learned about the lifecycle of frogs.

Learning next Week

In our RE studies, we will be exploring the role Angels took in the Nativity of the Lord.

In Mathematics lessons we will be exploring time, the number of minutes and hours in the day, and sequencing intervals of time.

In our English and Geography work we will be exploring the features of non-chronological reports and begin researching information to write their own reports about penguins and polar bears.

In our Science work we will focus on researching other animal lifecycles, including butterflies and penguins.
