

British Values

17th-23rd December

Mutual Respect

We are all different. Some of us may feel confident standing in front of lots of people and enjoy it, for others it may take a lot of courage. It's important to show respect and support each other when performing!