

Class 5 Summer 1 Round-up – 26/5/23

What a jam-packed half term this has been in Class 5! Very soon our Year 6 children will be embarking on their very last half-term at Lea Endowed and getting ready to take the next big step to High School 😊

This half-term...

In class this half-term we worked hard on revision topics up until our SATs tests. Post SATs, we have been writing fictional fantasy stories and looking at geometry in Maths lessons. In R.E. we have explored Ascension and Pentecost. Science has seen us study the circulatory system and we have looked at "Books through History", in our History lessons. The children have created some very clever and beautiful optical illusion art in their Art lessons.

This half term has seen the children complete their end of primary school SATs assessments. The week was filled with toast, bacon butties and sweets as well as lots of hard work! I was thrilled with how the children conducted themselves during the week. They showed real courage and determination and, whatever the results, I am immensely proud of them all 😊

The children have also completed Bikeability this half-term, where they learnt and practised valuable safety rules for cycling on the road. The instructors commented on their fantastic behaviour and effort during these days! Well done, children.

We have also been very lucky to have visits from the police to discuss Online safety and the Fire Service who provided further information about staying safe on the roads.
