This Week...

We have begun practising our Christmas Nativity, 'The Greatest Gift'. All children should now know their parts and we are currently sifting through our costume collection to check we have an outfit for everyone. If you don't hear from us, your child will already have been given their costume in school.

We found out this week that Santa's reindeers aren't very happy. They are looked after by different elves each day and not all the elves know what reindeers need to be happy and healthy. As a result of this, they haven't been getting the right things to eat or sleep on. Year 1 are going to remedy this problem by writing a reindeer fact sheet for the elves. This fact sheet will be photocopied and sent home so that it can be left out for Santa to take back to the elves on Christmas Eve.
